About

Joined around Session 8-9 (I forgot the exact one) and spawned in a desert but found their way to Delta where they started leveling healer and became quite efficient at gathering healing ingredients supplying not only their own bandage supply but also other Deltan healers (mainly Solar_Ash) Due to the large surpluses of bandages. Also made friend's with Loyal_Axolotl and would spend most sessions with her at the farm of Delta it was also thanks to Loyal_Axolotl they could make all those bandages with the absurd amount of chickens they had. And had by the end of the event an absurd amount of potions because despite how useful they are NO ONE WOULD USE THEM!!!!!!

Made Two Happy Ghast's

Also was one of the Guardians of the Sniffer (A mediocre one but its okay because the sniffer was safe in the end)

History

They were an awesome cool healer of awesomeness I don't know I put most interesting things about me in the about section
